St. Xavier College, Cincinnati, O.

This Literary Institution, situated on Sycamore Street, Cincinnati, was incorporated by the State Legislature in the year 1842, under the name and style of St. Xavier College. The last General Assembly of the State of Ohio, enacted a law May 7th, 1869, which secures to the Institution a perpetual Charter. It enjoys all the privileges usually granted to Universities.

The Course of Studies, which will be found below in full, embraces the Greek, Latin, English, French, and German Languages, Rhetoric, Poetry, History, Mythology, Geography, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Mathematics, Chemistry, Mental, Moral and Natural Philosophy.

Though formerly open for the reception of boarders, the College has, of late years, been exclusively devoted to the instruction of day scholars: however, dinner is furnished, at a moderate charge, to those who desire it. Nearly all the Students are of the Roman Catholic Religion, yet pupils of every denomination are admitted.

The Institution possesses a valuable Museum, containing many rare specimens of Conchology and Mineralogy, besides a suitable Philosophical and Chemical apparatus; also an extensive and well selected Library, numbering about 12,000 volumes. The select Libraries for the use of the students, number several thousand volumes.

All the departments are under the direction of members of the Society of Jesus.

REGULATIONS.

The Academic year consists of but One Session, beginning on the first Monday in September, and closing about the end of June; at which time, after a due examination of the Classes, a public exhibition takes place, followed by the conferring of degrees and the distribution of premiums.

No student is admitted who is under the age of ten years. No student from any other College will be received without satisfactory testimonials of character and behavior from the Institution whence he comes.

When a student presents himself for admission, he is examined and placed in the class for which his previous acquirements have prepared him.

On completing their classical course, the degree of Bachelor of Arts, is conferred on all who prove deserving of that distinction, and, after one year spent in the Post Graduate Course they are entitled to the degree of Master of Arts. A gold medal is awarded to the best Essay in the English Language, on an assigned subject.

The College is opened every morning at 6½ o'clock. Students who choose to come before time of class, begin to study as they arrive. All must be present at 8 o'clock. At this hour the exercises begin, and continue till 12 o'clock. In the afternoon they begin at 1½ and terminate at 4 o'clock.

In general, though the government of the Institution is rather mild than severe, yet for the maintaining of order and discipline, without which good results are scarcely possible, strict obedience, assiduous application and blameless conduct are required of every student. Any serious neglect of these essential points, renders the offender liable to effective correction, and even to dismissal, if deemed necessary.
